Louis Stokes Cleveland VA Medical Center recognized as one of Northeast Ohio's best places to work for top talent

CLEVELAND – The Louis Stokes Cleveland VA Medical Center received the prestigious NorthCoast 99 designation as one of Northeast Ohio's Top 99 places to work. NorthCoast 99 is an annual recognition program that honors the 99 best workplaces for top talent in northeast Ohio. The program was developed by the ERC, Northeast Ohio's leading and largest professional organization dedicated to HR practices, programs and services. Since 1999, the NorthCoast 99 award has recognized more than 400 organizations for their ability to maintain great workplaces that support the attraction, retention and motivation of top performers.

Winners of the NorthCoast 99 award are selected based on their policies; recruiting and selection process; compensation, benefits and rewards; training and development programs; and their organizational culture, innovation and leadership. In addition, feedback from a sample of top performers is used to determine awardees.

NorthCoast 99 is made possible by the following sponsors: ADP, Anthem, Career Curve, Frantz Ward, Gino's Awards, Inside Business, Oswald, and Staffing Solutions. For more information, please visit: <http://1.usa.gov/1EwpXi9>.
